

Margaret Byrne Heimbold

Margaret Byrne Heimbold is an accomplished publisher with 20 years experience in both for-profit and not-for-profit organizations and has been the publisher of American Film, Historic Preservation, Preservation Press, Preservation News and Metro Golf. A former advertising executive with The New York Times, Margaret received a Publisher's Award for the development of Gifts. She also has extensive management knowledge of licensing, marketing, public relations, conferences, seminars and events.

As president of Summerville Press, Inc., and publisher of Metro Golf, Mrs. Heimbold has been a staunch supporter of the MAPGA. During the past four years, the MAPGA has received outstanding support from her and her staff including, funding for tournaments, clinics and various charity events, participation in the Mid-Atlantic Golf and Travel Show, an MAPGA page in each issue of Metro Golf announcing the news of the Section, an MAPGA annual golf guide, and editorial support for the section's newsletter.

A native of Ireland and naturalized citizen of the U.S. since 1973, Margaret was educated in Ireland, England and the U. S. She graduated from Queens University in New York and has received professional certificates from New York University, Stanford University and the Dale Carnegie Institute.

Margaret lives in Georgetown with her husband Arthur and son Eric. All three are avid golfers, members of Kenwood Golf & Country Club and Tullamore Golf Club. In addition, Margaret has played golf on four continents. She is hoping that her handicap will shortly reflect her enthusiasm.
