

Mason Wolf

Sales Person of the Year

Mizuno Golf

Mason Wolf was born on October 31, 1964 in Elgin, Illinois to Roger and Mary Louise Wolf. He has two siblings, brother Craig and sister Rene. Mason started playing golf later in his teenage years and from there, attended Eastern New Mexico University in Portales, N.M. where he studied Communications.

Mason's first job in the golf industry was at Martin Downs Golf Club in Stuart, Fl. where he worked as the Outside Operations Manager for two years. From there, he was a teaching professional at Wild Cat Cliffs Country Club in Highlands, N.C. and Grand Cypress Golf Club in Orlando, Fl. In 1989, Mason worked an 8 month stint as a teaching professional in Neumarkt, Germany until relocating to the Country Club of Safire Valley in Cashiers, N.C. Rounding out Mason's teaching career was his position at Windy Hill Golf Complex in Midlothian Va. as the lead teaching instructor.

Mason has been in the Mizuno Sales Representative in the Middle Atlantic Section since 2006 and attributes his success to The Lord, Jesus Christ, and his patient and understanding wife, Rebecca. Mason and Rebecca have been married for 29 years and have five sons: Tom (28) Bonner (26) Ben (24) Jack (21) and Will (18). Mason and Rebecca also have five grandchildren.
